“ Tracey, this is Phyllis. I miss you so much and your beautiful sons miss you as well We all wish you were here. I will always cherish the times we shared as mother and daughter. I appreciate that you always shared your wonderful sons, my little bear cubs with me, unconditionally. You and I always had fun and I loved you very much. I just wished that somehow, life could have been better for you. I will always remember all the times we dressed up and went out in Los Angeles, Reno, Las Vegas and a host of other great times we had. I am so sorry you was taken so soon. Just know, I will always love you, and keep you alive for your sons. I'm so, so sad you are not here for little Drakeman. He needs you more than ever now. Ethan lives with me and is doing well. He cries a lot wishing you were here. They both love you so much and they miss you terribly. I promise you, I will do my best to take care of them for you. I love you always, Phyllis

“ My heart is so heavy as I heard just today (Oct 19) of her passing. I am shocked yet have amazing memories of such a beautiful, colorful, funny, sweet spirited woman who i know will be greatly missed. Even though I haven't seen her in awhile, since I am now on the west coast the past few years, the fond memories I have with her are forever in my heart. My sincere condolences to the entire family. God bless, Deanna Davis
