“ Lloyd you and your wife are family to Betty, Lillie, Chrisma, and me. We are full of remorse. I am sure it does not compare to the sorrow you and the family are experiencing. I would like the family to know that Vanessa's love and kindness will forever be remembered. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. We know you will find your way through this difficult journey. Simply because you have a relationship with our Lord and Saviour. May the Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. “ To Lloyd and Lloyd, may the God of comfort and strength be your guide. The Lord is the author and the finisher of your faith. He is your helper. The Lord has blessed your lives with Vanessa, a beautiful and unique soul. One that God crafted himself. She is genuinely caring, loving, generous, openly gracious, and who loves the Lord. Those who die in Christ are alive and well. Though the world is void of her presence, she has left a joyful imprint on the hearts of so many. What a wonderful testament of her life. We who are left must finish the race strong like Vanessa. She will be greatly missed, but we shall see her again. Love you both!
In loving memory of my sister and friend whom I love and cherish.

Vanessa was such a special lady. When you asked her how she is doing, her comment was always "There are those a lot worse than me". I remember that when I'm having a less than ideal day. I loved her dearly.

Lloyd you and Vanessa were family to me. We had some good times whenever you'll came to Alabama. I remember my first time meeting you was at ALAC gathering in Selma. We all piled up in that real nice car that you and Lloyd had and went out to his dad's house way back up in Orville out a few mile from Selma. I always remember how we all gathered at Lloyd's aunt Ruth house and had some good fun and entertainment.

You were a beautiful person. Kind and giving. So go on and take your rest. "You will definitely be missed. My condolences to your entire family.
