“ Bob, Ryan and Sarah words can't express my sadness about the loss of your wife, mom, grandma and special friend to so many. I love Vickie for so many reasons, above all her kindness, acceptance of others and humor (for my 50th b-day she hung 50 black bats from my office ceiling). She touched so many lives in meaningful ways including mine and truly will be missed! My heartfelt thoughts are with you and your family. Leslie Wagner -

“ We want to extend my deepest condolences to Bob, Sarah, Ryan, and all other friends and family impacted by this tragic loss.

Vickie was one of the first people to greet us, even before our home was built 20 years ago. She was always so kindhearted and welcoming. Little did we know that was the start of a lifelong friendship.

Thank you for being the best neighbors one could ask for.

We will miss the daily interactions with her immensely. My family and I will be thinking of you all and praying for your strength and courage to cope with the loss of someone so special. May she be at peace now, smiling as she watches over you from above. -Rizwan & Shaheena Khan

“ Sarah, Ryan, and Bob, I send heartfelt condolences to you during these difficult times. I first knew Vickie when I was a fourth grade teacher at St. Simon the Apostle. She was a very involved parent, always ready to lend a hand to the teachers, and help us prepare the music for our class masses. We became reacquainted years later, when I joined the Mudsock quilt guild. Vickie was an accomplished quilter, and always happy to share her knowledge. In fact, she helped me pick the fabrics for my first quilt, which is on my couch. She also quilted it on her long arm machine. I will remember Vicki as a talented, giving, and upbeat person. God bless you and your family, Kim Williams.

“ Bob, Ryan and Sarah; I am so very sorry for your tremendous loss. I had the joy of working with Vickie for years at Ginovus, and we shared so many great memories. I also have two treasured quilts from her; she was extraordinarily talented. Please know I'll be holding each of you close to my heart during the days ahead.
