“ I met Vida through St. John Lutheran Church at the Wednesday evening Lenten soup suppers. She was a fabulous cook and her Creamy Chicken Soup was delicious. When I retired and joined Ladies Aid, I got to know her even better and became her prayer partner. She was a faithful Christian woman and I am so glad that I can call her my friend. My thoughts and prayers are with Alan as he mourns the loss of his beloved wife and to all the other people and family that mourn the loss of this special lady. May our Lord and Savior hold us all in his arms and give us peace.

“ I feel like I have known Vida all of my life. Our relationship became more "official" when her dad married my mom in 1987. Will miss her caring ways!
