“ Dear Family,
I worked with Vincent only a short while at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House but our faith connected us quickly. He left you a legacy of integrity, commitment to doing a beautiful job no matter the task and a desire to follow his dream of preparing meals worthy of the kingdom of God. He loved being a Dad and Husband. Know you are all in my prayers. Sr. Kathleen

“ I first met Vincent on a Cursillo weekend. I was head kitchen Cha, and Saturday night’s dinner was fast approaching... the big fancy dinner, and I was beginning to panic. Vincent shows up out of nowhere... on a ladies weekend and said “What can I do to help?”. Now, I didn’t even know who he was, but it soon became obvious he knew his way around the kitchen! Then it hit me...God had sent me a chef!!! Wow. I’ll never forget how overwhelmed I was feeling and how Vincent got it all under control. God is good! I’m sure there are many more stories of Vincent’s kind and giving spirit. Rest in peace, sir.

“ Vincent was my Chef Instructor at Ivy Tech when I did my culinary training in the 90s. He later hired me as an adjunct instructor and then later as a full time faculty member. I remember his smile, his passion and faith that he expressed with the knowledge and wisdom that he shared. I appreciate his influence in my life. Deepest sympathy to Karla and the Kinkade family.

“ Vincent was my culinary instructor in 1992-94. We became good friends and shared lots of life's ups and downs together all these many years. He hired me as a full-time faculty in 2000 at Ivy Tech and 23 years later I am still here. Karla was his soulmate and he loved being a father to these special children. Vincent's faith was contagious- I know he is with our Father in heaven. He gave of his time and talent to so many all these years. I will miss him. My sympathies to the Kinkade family. Lauri Griffin
