

Virgil P. Moore

March 17, 1928 - August 10, 2014

86, Indianapolis, passed into the arms of our Lord, August 10, 2014. Virgil worked at Eli Lilly & Co for 40 years and volunteered at Community North Hospital following his retirement. Virgil is survived by his devoted daughter, Marsha J. Hallauer (Frank); five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Preceding him in death was his loving wife of 60 years, Jodi and his daughter, Chari Messersmith. Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.

Tribute Wall

JC

“Virgil Moore, A proud Veteran of WWII and a great guy, when we were young pipefitters, he was a tough old hard working man, who left a lasting impression on all of us who worked with him, I will miss my old friend.

Johnny Cross

Johnny Cross - August 13, 2014 at 09:48 PM

SK

“My husband Don and 'Moose' were great friends at Lilly and enjoyed pulling practical jokes on fellow workers. He enjoyed coming to our home at Cataract Lake to fish, and the laughs began all over again. I hope Heaven can handle it if they happen to meet up again!

Sharon Kinder

Sharon Kinder - August 12, 2014 at 11:07 PM