“ Ginny Luzader lived a life of service to so many people in Carmel. She was an excellent teacher who worked diligently for her students and with her colleagues. As a rookie teacher working next to her classroom at Woodbrook, I watched and learned so much from her. As dedicated volunteers at the Carmel Clay Historical Society for decades, Ginny and Herb were an exemplary team. I know it was the same at their church, the Hamilton County Retired Teachers Association, and any job they volunteered to do. They both had a great sense of humor to make the job fun! Well done, good and faithful servants.

“ Ginny and I opened Woodbrook's third grade. I was lucky enough to hear all of Ginny's wisdom because of it being an open classroom. I owe much of my phonics and spelling rules to her wonderful teaching. How fortunate I was. Susan Barrett
