“ To the Mortenson family: I am truly sorry for your loss but I know that she shared a life of love, happiness and vigor with you. What I remember most from her was that she enjoyed life, had a special relationship with her sisters, was a very supportive wife, enjoyed her children and was proud of her grandbabies. Every time I had the pleasure of her company she was wearing a smile and loved the social interaction. She touched many lives and her memory will always be alive.
