“ My deepest condolences to my friend Bert and all of the Dortch/Barrett family. Bonnie was truly a "mom-away-from-home" to me when Bert and I were little kids living across the street from each other. I have such fond memories of Bonnie from those cherished, irreplaceable years on Edmondson. Rest in peace, Bonnie!

Our lives were entwined for a reason. We shared so many trials and tribulations together. You were my sister in Christ, you were someone who made me smile, laugh and giggle over the dumbest things. You were my confident I could tell you my innermost hurts and joys. You gave me peace in my heart at all times. Lucy and Ethel are no more but we will meet again. You may be gone but the memories are here and will be with me forever. Thank you for sharing your life with me. No one could have a better true and loyal (Sister) friend.

“ You were my big sister, you became my best friend. You were beside me in the best of times and the worst. We spoke at least once a day and I your will miss that so much. I cannot express my sorrow and how much I loved you. You showed everyone your courage and strength. You were so much like our mother; I love you and God speed you to Jack and all those loved ones waiting to greet you

“ You fought a long, tough battle mamma. You hung in there way longer than I ever expected you to and I know you did it all for me. It was a long, rough road, but I am so happy that I got to ride along with you. I would gladly do it all again and I wouldn't change a thing. I know now that you are happy and with Dad and Dustin. Tell them both I love them. And until we meet again, I love you mamma.
