“ So sorry for the loss of my Aunt Wanda, as a child and new Mother I spent so much time at Uncle Bud and Aunt Wanda's house. Such a sense of loss, losing my Dad, Bill McDowell on Jan 1, 2014 and then Aunt Wanda within a few months. I truly know how much it deeply hurts to lose your Mother, my thoughts and prayers are with Cheryl, Mike and Cindy.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the death of Wanda. The passing away of a loved one is always with much sorrow. May we have faith and confidence in the Bible's promise of a time when pain, sickness and death are a thing of the past (Revelation 21:3, 4). My condolences are with the family at this difficult time.

“ Dear Bud, Mike, Cheryl, Cindy, & Jay, and grown-up grandkids Nathan, Rebecca, Wesley, Reilly, Bryan, and Kara, How many times have you all encouraged my heart? When Bob and I lived in Indianapolis, I looked forward to laughter among you all, to Bud's conversations, to Wanda's warm "mom hugs" and counsel at church, to shenanigans and counsel. When I came to your house, Bud, I always felt loved and welcome. You took me in--the East Tennessee country girl who moved to the big city. I love you, and I am so grateful for Wanda's powerful impact of faith, no-nonsense words, and laughter. I am blessed to have known her--and to have been loved by the Corey family. You are infinitely precious to Jesus Christ, and He knows your every deep need at this time of grief. He wants you to receive rest, encouragement, and solace during these hard days. Press in and lean on Him. May your friends and family remind you of this truth: we are ALL headed HOME soon...to see Jesus face to face. As a great bonus, we will also get to see so many we have loved so deeply: your sweet wife (and mom, grandmom) Wanda, my mom Connie Witcher, Laura Corey, my grandmother Virginia Widner...and so many other believers. Because there shall be no more pain. Wanda will be in absolute freedom...maybe even leading the walk, the dance, the song. Know of my fervent prayers for you. You are loved. Candy Sutherland

“ We will always remember Wanda as a loyal Springville Hornets fan, leading the cheers at our junior high basketball games. She was so happy go lucky, leaving laughter and sharing her smiles along the way.
