“ As an old classmate of Wanda's she was always fun and spirited. It was so good to see her last year at our 50th. It was evident she was struggling with health issues but as usual she put on her big girl panties and made a showing. RIP sweet lady.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Wanda's passing. I met her while working at Gemrich & Moser law firm in Kalamazoo a very long time ago. We became good friends, & remained friends for many years. Unfortunately, our lives took us in different directions & I had not seen her for a long time. Too many fond memories to mention here. My condolences to Matthew & the family. Rest in peace, my friend. Until we meet again.

*I wanted theres all kinds of memories I have of you. 1rst was when you took us to your friends house. I dont remember what friends house it was but that hidden room was cool. 2nd you always took us shopping when we would come to visit. now I see why I like to shop alot LOL. Bad thing is now my daughter does to. I guess I learned that from the very best (You). You was always so kind and wanted to help. I remember trying to get my dads 60th surprise party together. Trying to buy everything etc. You sent me a check to buy all the drinks and stuff. I didnt want to accept it but you made me take it. I was scared if you didnt when you came to michigan you would kick my butt lol. Another one is man you have a good memory. Every year around the time of my birthday i could expect a birthday card in the mail from you. That was so kind of you to send a birthday card. It always made my day getting those in the mail. Then all those famous people uou got to meet. You saying the one time you was at a friends house getting ready to play cards or something. But you wasnt dressed really to impress. Well your friend ended up having a famour person come over. LOL i remember you saying you had to go get freshin up LOL. You always looked great so why you had to do that i dont know. So theres some of my memories of you I do have plenty more but I dont want to take up this whole thing. We will miss you and we love you.
