

Wavil Rosemary Lanman

April 26, 1932 - April 13, 2012

Wavil Rosemary (Baldwin) Lanman, 79, of Okeechobee, Florida, recently in New Palestine, passed away April 13, 2012. She was born in Indianapolis on April 26, 1932, to the late Lloyd and Mary Elizabeth Woods Baldwin.

Rosemary was a graduate of Decatur High School. She married Robert J. Lanman, and he preceded her in death. She was employed with Eli Lilly & Co., retiring in 1979. Rosemary was a member of Brighton Baptist Church, Okeechobee, Florida. A Celebration of Life service will be held Thursday, April 26, 2012, at 6:30 p.m. at His Place New Palestine United Church, 15 E. Main St., New Palestine, IN. Rosemary is survived by her children, Robert Keith Lanman (Jeanette) and Betty J. Baugh (David); four grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren. Rosemary also had 2 sisters Joyce White and Betty King as well as a brother Austin Baldwin Jr. that also preceded her in death. She has 1 niece Jo Ellen Richardson and 3 nephews Donald White, Max White and Keith Baldwin Jr. and several great niece's and nephew's.. Rosemary always had a smile on her face and if you asked her how she was feeling she would say, "I'm Fine." I would like to leave you with a poem that I believe that Rosemary would have really liked: JUST WHEN FRIENDS ARE NEEDED YOU FIND THEM ALWAYS NEAR, JUST WHEN SHADOWS DARKEN THEIR COMFORTING WORDS YOU HEAR. Memorial contributions may be made to March of Dimes, www.marchofdimes.org/team/T1774442

Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
