“ Wayne was a devoted husband and outgoing man whom I met at IMH. He loved socializing with his neighbors, sharing his thoughts and ideas, and playing bridge with them. Both ladies in his life were very special to him. He was very dedicated to Shirley, and later in life so enjoyed traveling with Loretta. I was also blessed to have known him as an acquaintance with lots of wisdom to share. He was a good friend. RIP Wayne.

“ I worked with Wayne in the late 70's at Foremost on the same floor, just a few desks away. We talked and occasionally took coffee breaks together. Wayne was well liked and his work was respected and valued within the company. I send good wishes and condolences to his family. Wayne was a truly fine person.
