

Wayne M. Kimmell

February 5, 1940 - December 27, 2010

70, of Indianapolis, passed away December 27, 2010. He was born February 5, 1940 to Louis and Jessie Southers Kimmell in Vincennes, IN. Wayne graduated from Manual High School in 1958 and attended Herron School of Art on a full tuition scholarship. He worked for H G Peters & Co. as an artist and Director of Photography and then was self-employed as an architectural and conceptual designer. He was a well known and accomplished artist in the Irvington Area best known for his poster designs of historic Irvington landmarks. He was most proud to be commissioned by the Indiana State Museum Store to design their 2010 Christmas ornament and to have his art prints displayed and sold there. Wayne loved sports, especially watching his granddaughters', coached Little League baseball and youth basketball, was an avid bass fisherman and a lifelong antique collector. Wayne met his wife Nancy Cox at Herron Art School and was married to her for over 48 years. She is left to cherish his memory along with their children; daughter, Jill (Fletcher) Daly, and sons, Jason and Josh (Staci) Kimmell; siblings, Peggy Hallam, Kay Shrimp, Alice Madison, and Raymond Kimmell; mother, Jessie Kimmell; and his beloved grandchildren, Emma, Ellie and Quinn Daly, Morgan, Mallory, Meredith, Alli, Kate and Caroline Kimmell. He was preceded in death by his father, Louis Kimmell. The Kimmell/Daly family wishes to thank everyone involved with the Methodist Hospital trauma team. Visitation will be at Shirley Brothers Irving Hill Chapel, 5377 E. Washington St. Sunday, January 2, 2011 from 2:00pm until time of service at 7:00pm.
