“ I knew Bill during our growing-up years as I visited their home often, hanging out with his younger sisters Carolyn and Rita. In later years we would visit Bill and Beth in Indianapolis, who were very welcoming, helpful and fun. My sympathy goes out to all of the Judge family.

“ The Nelson family all loved Bill Judge, devoted husband to our beloved cousin Beth, and loving father to our cousins Jimmy and Matt. His reserved demeanor didn't hide his delight at being with our big noisy family. His good-natured temperament and gentle heart endeared him to all of us. We know he is loved by everyone who knew him, and his passing will leave a void that nothing can replace. We love you, Matt, Claudia, Tessa and Jack.
