“ It would be a difficult task to find a more kind-hearted, soft-spoken, gentle man than my Uncle Bill. I particularly remember his devotion to his parents throughout his life, but especially as they aged. He made sure they never lacked for anything they needed.

One of the fondest memories of my growing up years were the many huge family reunions held each fall at the Noblesville, IN park, where dozens gathered. Such fun! I also remember the wonderful Christmas parties Uncle Bill and Aunt Martha had in their home. Although they never had children of their own, we nieces and nephews were loved as much. We all have been blessed to have had this loving man in our lives.

Carol Patricia Dorn Mason, daughter of Mildred, Bill's oldest sister.
