

William A. French

April 14, 1939 - March 7, 2012

William A. French⁷², Indianapolis, reunited with his beloved wife, Carole, on March 7, 2012. He is survived by his daughter, Jennifer (Robert) Hilcz; and grandsons, Benjamin and Alexander William. Bill was an IPS Jr. High Language Arts Teacher for 23 years. He was a gifted writer; an avid reader; a devoted golfer; and a loving husband, father, and grandfather. On the golf course, he was often accompanied by his wife and #1 fan. His daughter proudly joined his gallery after her death. He was a Butler University graduate and cheered for the Bulldogs through the NCAA tournaments. His enthusiasm was contagious and made the games even more exciting for his family who loved watching them with him. His favorite part of dinner was dessert, and his grandsons will miss getting milkshakes with him. His quick wit and sense of humor endeared him to many and he will be truly missed by all who knew and loved him. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Holy Spirit School, 7241 E. 10th St. Indianapolis, IN 46219; or Scecina Memorial High School, 5000 Nowland Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46201 Graveside service will be held Wednesday, March 14, 2012 at 3:30 p.m. at Anderson Cemetery, 6500E. 10th St. Final arrangement entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
