

William "Michael" Gloye

July 9, 1951 - November 21, 2017

William "Michael" Gloye, 66, of Indianapolis, passed away November 21, 2017. He was born July 9, 1951 in Kokomo, IN, to the late William A. and Emily L. Gloye. Michael received his Bachelor's Degree from General Motors Institute and his Master's Degree in Industrial Engineering from Purdue University. Michael was employed as an Industrial Engineer with Allison Transmission for 39 years, retiring in 2008. After retirement, he did consulting work.

Michael is survived by his loving wife of 44 years, Zoa Leslie Gloye; children, Tiffany Johnsen (Brian), Jason Gloye and Paul Gloye; granddaughter, Makayla Johnsen; siblings, Cindy Gloye, Ellen Brassard and David Gloye (Bobi); and nieces and nephews.

Michael was a member of Fall Creek Church, Gideons International, the Society of Automotive Engineers and an Eagle Scout. For 25 years, he taught the World in Motion program at Heritage Christian School, which introduces fourth and fifth grade children to engineering.

Visitation will be Saturday, November 25, 2017 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Fall Creek Church, 8901 Fall Creek Rd. Memorial contributions may be made to Fall Creek Church Missions online at www.fallcreekchurch.com. Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.

PS

I met Micheal as a little guy when my sister, Phyllis Gloye Lute and I visited Emily and Bill. We are cousins and send all cousins our sympathy. I wish I could have known this wonderful man as an adult. God bless all of you!
