“ Bill Ince was our neighbor for over 50 years. Him and his family lived across the street from us. He always had a smile, a wave, a moment to say hello and ask how things were going. When Diane passed away it was such a sad time for everyone. She was such a Ray of Sunshine! A beautiful person inside and out! My Mom and her were close and they all were wonderful neighbors. Over the years I would visit my Parrent's, and I'd go over and say hello to Bill and Patty, ask about Debi and let them know how much I appreciated them being such wonderful neighbors. My Mom lives alone now, and Bill always kept an eye on her. Checking in, chatting when she was out doing yard work, getting the mail. He had a beautiful presents about him! It was genuine. You knew he was there for you. I wish the family Peace... I know it was so sudden and there was no time to prepare...Just know, both of your Parents are so proud of you girls, and they are together again at last. That is my final thought. Together Forever. We are here for you girls, and we love you! Renee Hay and Anna Marsh Grateful Neighbors.
