

William J. Livingston

September 10, 1920 - September 21, 2008

William J. Livingston, 88, of Indianapolis, passed away September 21, 2008. Bill was born September 10, 1920 to James and Alice White Livingston, of Crab Orchard, KY. Bill was a graduate of New Middletown (IN) High School and proudly served the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific during WWII. Following the war, Bill received his B.S. degree in Pharmacy from Butler University. He began his career as a pharmacist at Coons Drugs followed by 22 years with Hook's Drugs until his retirement in 1985. Bill was a member of Northwood Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) as well as the Valley of Indianapolis Scottish Rite, the Murat Shrine, and Past Master of Logan Masonic Lodge #585. Bill was a loving husband of 66 years to Elinor Bird Livingston, who preceded him in death earlier this year. He was also preceded in death by his 7 siblings: Evaline, Bertie, James, Robert, Elizabeth, Margaret, and Mary Belle, as well as 2 nephews. A devoted family man, Bill is survived by his son and daughter-in-law Brian and Julie Livingston; grandchildren, Nina and Nicholas Livingston; and many nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Monday, September 29, from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. A Memorial Service in celebration of Bill's life will begin immediately following visitation at 2:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Bill's honor to Compassion 4 Kids, 11938 Glen Cove Dr., 46236 or to Geist Christian Church, 8550 Mud Creek Rd., 46256.
