“ I remember the first time I really talked to William it was after my momma's passing He opened his door and back patio to me. Him and Melissa where there when I felt alone. and we just sat talked and he had me laughing. I hadn't laughed since my momma's passing. He was so sweet caring and acted like we been knew eachother. He was amazing with my kids too.

“ William was always kind to me and my son. Every time I came to pick my son up from his house he always had a smile on his face or a laugh in his throat. My son adored him as well and thought he was the coolest guy. Errol wanted to also say, "Wesley is my best friend and also William Jr, I am sorry for your loss and I wish I could hug all the pain away.”
