“ Aunt Jackie waited for a nice, loving man and she found that man in Uncle Bill. He was a caring and kind person with always a positive word for everyone. We enjoyed listening to his stories about the book binding business. We were also glad that Uncle Bill had the chance to visit the World War II Memorial in Washington DC. We thank him for his sacrifice and duty. A long life well lived, Uncle Bill.

“ Bill was like a father to me he always said I was the son he never had. I will miss Bill with all my heart, but I know he's in heaven with our Lord Jesus Christ so I can move on with life.
