“ Always enjoyed our friendship. Great time was had on golf trips planned by our mutual friend Ron Macy. Bill pull off some classic stuff on me. Like bringing 3 puppies for our 3 kids. Saying, one for each. And the time having women's underwear in my suitcase. Found by my wife. Perfect. Our fellow golf buddies banging on our door at 2AM looking for Bill. Big fish in toilet. Heat on furnace set at 90. There's more memories, but I finish by saying. A lost of a good friend. Miss you

“ I have so many memories of Bill because Vicki and I met in 7th grade. I think my favorite memory was the first time I met him because he was getting ready for a Halloween party and was standing in his bathroom dressed in panty hose, mini shirt, high heels and a bra. He was finishing up his makeup and had a stockinette on his head prepared to put a wig on. He was facing the mirror and when he turned around I almost fell down and thought he was the funniest person I had ever met. As Vicki got older I could see her Dads face even more since I got to see him as a woman years before.

He was a unique and sweet man who brought humor to just about every situation. His daughters took wonderful care of him and we're a blessing in his life. He will be missed!

“ *As a child you look up to older kids. My cousin Bill and his older brothers were guys I always thought were very cool. They had neat cars, played sports and were fun to be around. Bill always seemed on the sunny side of the street.
Missing him and having these good memories.*
