

Windwalker Threeeagles Wade

November 10, 1953 - June 4, 2020

Windwalker Threeeagles Wade, 66, of Indianapolis, passed away June 4, 2020. She was born November 10, 1953 in Indianapolis to the late Robert J. and Golda F. Withrow. Windwalker attended Thomas Carr Howe High School and Harry E. Wood High School and married Clark Tucker Wade, February 14, 1989. Windwalker was a generous and kindhearted person in life. Jesus Christ was central in her life, she was a woman of great faith, and spent much of her time in prayer. The world has lost a great source of blessings. To be in contact with Windwalker was to experience the blessings God bestowed on her. She will be greatly missed.

Visitation will be Wednesday, June 10, 2020 from 12 noon until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 East Washington Street.

Windwalker is survived by her loving husband, Clark T. Wade; sisters, Darlene Hobson and Sandra Cockran; brothers, Robert Withrow and Andy Withrow; and several nieces and nephews. A sister, Gina Withrow, preceded her in death.

“ Windwalker was my favorite patient. She was always friendly, kind, and generous. When my first grandson was born with a rare genetic disease, Windwalker was a prayer warrior, and gave with a big heart to team Evan. You will be missed my friend, but I know that we now have a guardian angel with us. Rest In Peace Windwalker.. Mary
