

Winfred L. Hively

November 13, 1932 - March 2, 2009

76, passed away on March 2, 2009, after a long battle with lung cancer and its after effects. He was born on November 13, 1932, in Grand Glaise, Arkansas, to Steve and Oma (Collom) Hively. In 1951, he moved to Indianapolis, Indiana. Soon thereafter, he met the love of his life, Loretta (Hodges). They were married on August 13, 1954. Windy was a machinist, with Mitchell & Scott Machine Shop, from 1951 through 1966. He then went to Ford Motor Company, from where he retired in 1991. In his retirement, Windy enjoyed traveling, fishing, and spending time with his family. He was a man with a great love for his family, a kind and generous heart, and a man who never met a stranger. In addition to his many friends, Windy leaves behind his loving wife, Loretta; his daughter, Sherry Powell and her husband, Brian; his son, Ronald Hively and his wife, Bonita; and his brother, William (Bud) Hively. Visitation will be held Thursday, March 5 from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St., with funeral services to follow at 2:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made, in Windy's name, to the Community Home Health Hospice Service, who have been a great help to all of us, during Windy's final days.
